

WQF-BPM1

Display Power Management for
BRAVIA Professional Displays

Overview

Display Power Management

Sony's display power management application provides for controlling power status of multiple displays remotely via network connectivity. Control can be done ad-hoc for each individual display or via a pre-defined schedule. The application also provides for power status monitoring (i.e. off/on of displays). This application works for both Sony Pro Bravia (FW displays) and for projectors.

Gallery

