

IP Live Manager

PC based software to configure and monitor video feeds of NXL-IP55

Overview

Control of multiple NXL-IP55 live production units over LAN

IP Live Manager is a PC based application software that enables the control and configuration of multiple NXL-IP55 live production units over an IP Network. It also offers the ability to monitor multiple video streams on the same screen while they are transmitted over the network at any location. Software presets makes it easy to change routes and pairings of NXL-IP55 units.

Features

Control of multiple NXL-IP55 live production units over LAN

IP Live Manager is a PC based application software that enables the control and configuration of multiple NXL-IP55 live production units over an IP Network.

Monitor video feeds transferred over the network

It allows you to monitor multiple video streams on the same screen while they are transmitted over the network.

Easily change configuration of NXL-IP55 to have different source/target

Software presets makes it easy to change routes and pairings of NXL-IP55 units.

Related products

NXL-FR318

SDI-IP signal processing unit

Gallery

